

Let us welcome you in the cultural fortress Heusden

“Wonderful little town. Lovely to walk about and enjoy the terrace culture”

“Beautifully restored township. Full of character”

These are just a few examples of visitors’ reactions. Wandering through the idyllic and narrow alleys you will discover beautiful façades and nice restaurants and boutiques. The fortress Heusden has a pleasant atmosphere, which makes a visit very desirable. But obviously a relaxed visit starts with good accessibility.

Free Parking

The best place to park your car is on the edge of the town. There are three major parking areas, that are sure to have enough space: Vestingstraat (P Heusden Centrum Zuid), Mastdijk (P Heusden Centrum Oost) and Tramhaven (P Heusden Centrum West).

Furthermore parking there is free. From the parking lots it’s about a 5-10 minute walk to the centre. A very enjoyable walk, because under way you will have a great view of the fortress walls.

Disabled parking

Are you in possession of a disabled parking card? In that case you are allowed to park in a special disabled parking space, for free. These common disabled parking lots are situated on: Burchtplein, Htg. Johanna van Brabantstraat (church), Hoogstraat (number 4), de Pelsestraat (Visitor centre), Breestraat (Visitor Centre), Roomsche Kerkstraat (Sint Antoniushof) and Demer (Senior clubhouse). With your disabled parking card you are also allowed to park in other generic spaces in the fortress. But these will not always be without charge.

Bus parking

Buses and coaches can enter and leave the fortress via de Steenweg and de Demer.

Passengers can alight on Burchtplein. Parking is allowed from Monday through Friday at the parking area Vestingstraat (P Heusden Centrum Zuid). From here the fortress is very much accessible on foot. Within a 10 minute walk you are in the centre of town.

On Saturday and Sunday, the buses or coaches can ride into the fortress via the N267 (byway Heesbeen). Passengers can alight on Burchtplein. To leave they will have to ride via Demer and Steenweg, next via N267, byway Heesbeen to subsequently park at the parking area Grotestraat (P Heusden Centrum West).
